But you know I actually think that one of the things that make someone like me most happy and who is someone like me so yeah I'm probably a little crazy some people might say but actually I'm really really impulsive I mean I'm a very impulsive person you know I'll just jump straight into you know I mean things head first just like that you know but that doesn't mean that I'm not deep my friends tell me that I'm a really giving a very giving person you know who isn't afraid of keeping their own principles you know I mean I'm incredibly open to other people and other cultures you know I mean we're all people at the end of the day one way or another but say if I hear a nice piece of music that explains your feelings without needing to put it into words you know or just looking forward to something in your everyday life you know because actually I'm a very private person you know like when you feel comfortable clothes that's very personal you know but that's no reason not to share it with someone you know or just the sun is shining that makes me happy just sunshine you know or the birds singing or a fresh bouquet of flowers or just getting a giant hug you know or sometimes I'll just putter around all day in my p.j.'s with a messy bed head and just putter around at home all natural you know it's very you know but what about you are you a very private person too I mean why do we have to be so perfect you know perfection doesn't exist in real life only in movies and ads you know no it would be better if we all had bed heads you know I mean just at home you know when you're private you know you just have to let go of control and of expectations and live more in the moment you know just be and listen and sense and feel the moment you know feel the moment on your own body you know like when you take a bath you know where you just close your eyes and forget yourself you know or have a real girl talk over the phone you know and just yak about everything you know that's actually really sensuous you know talking on the phone you know because you sense with both your ears and your inner gaze you know you sense what the other person is saying too you know that's very sensuous too not using your senses you know just really use them you know
